Presents

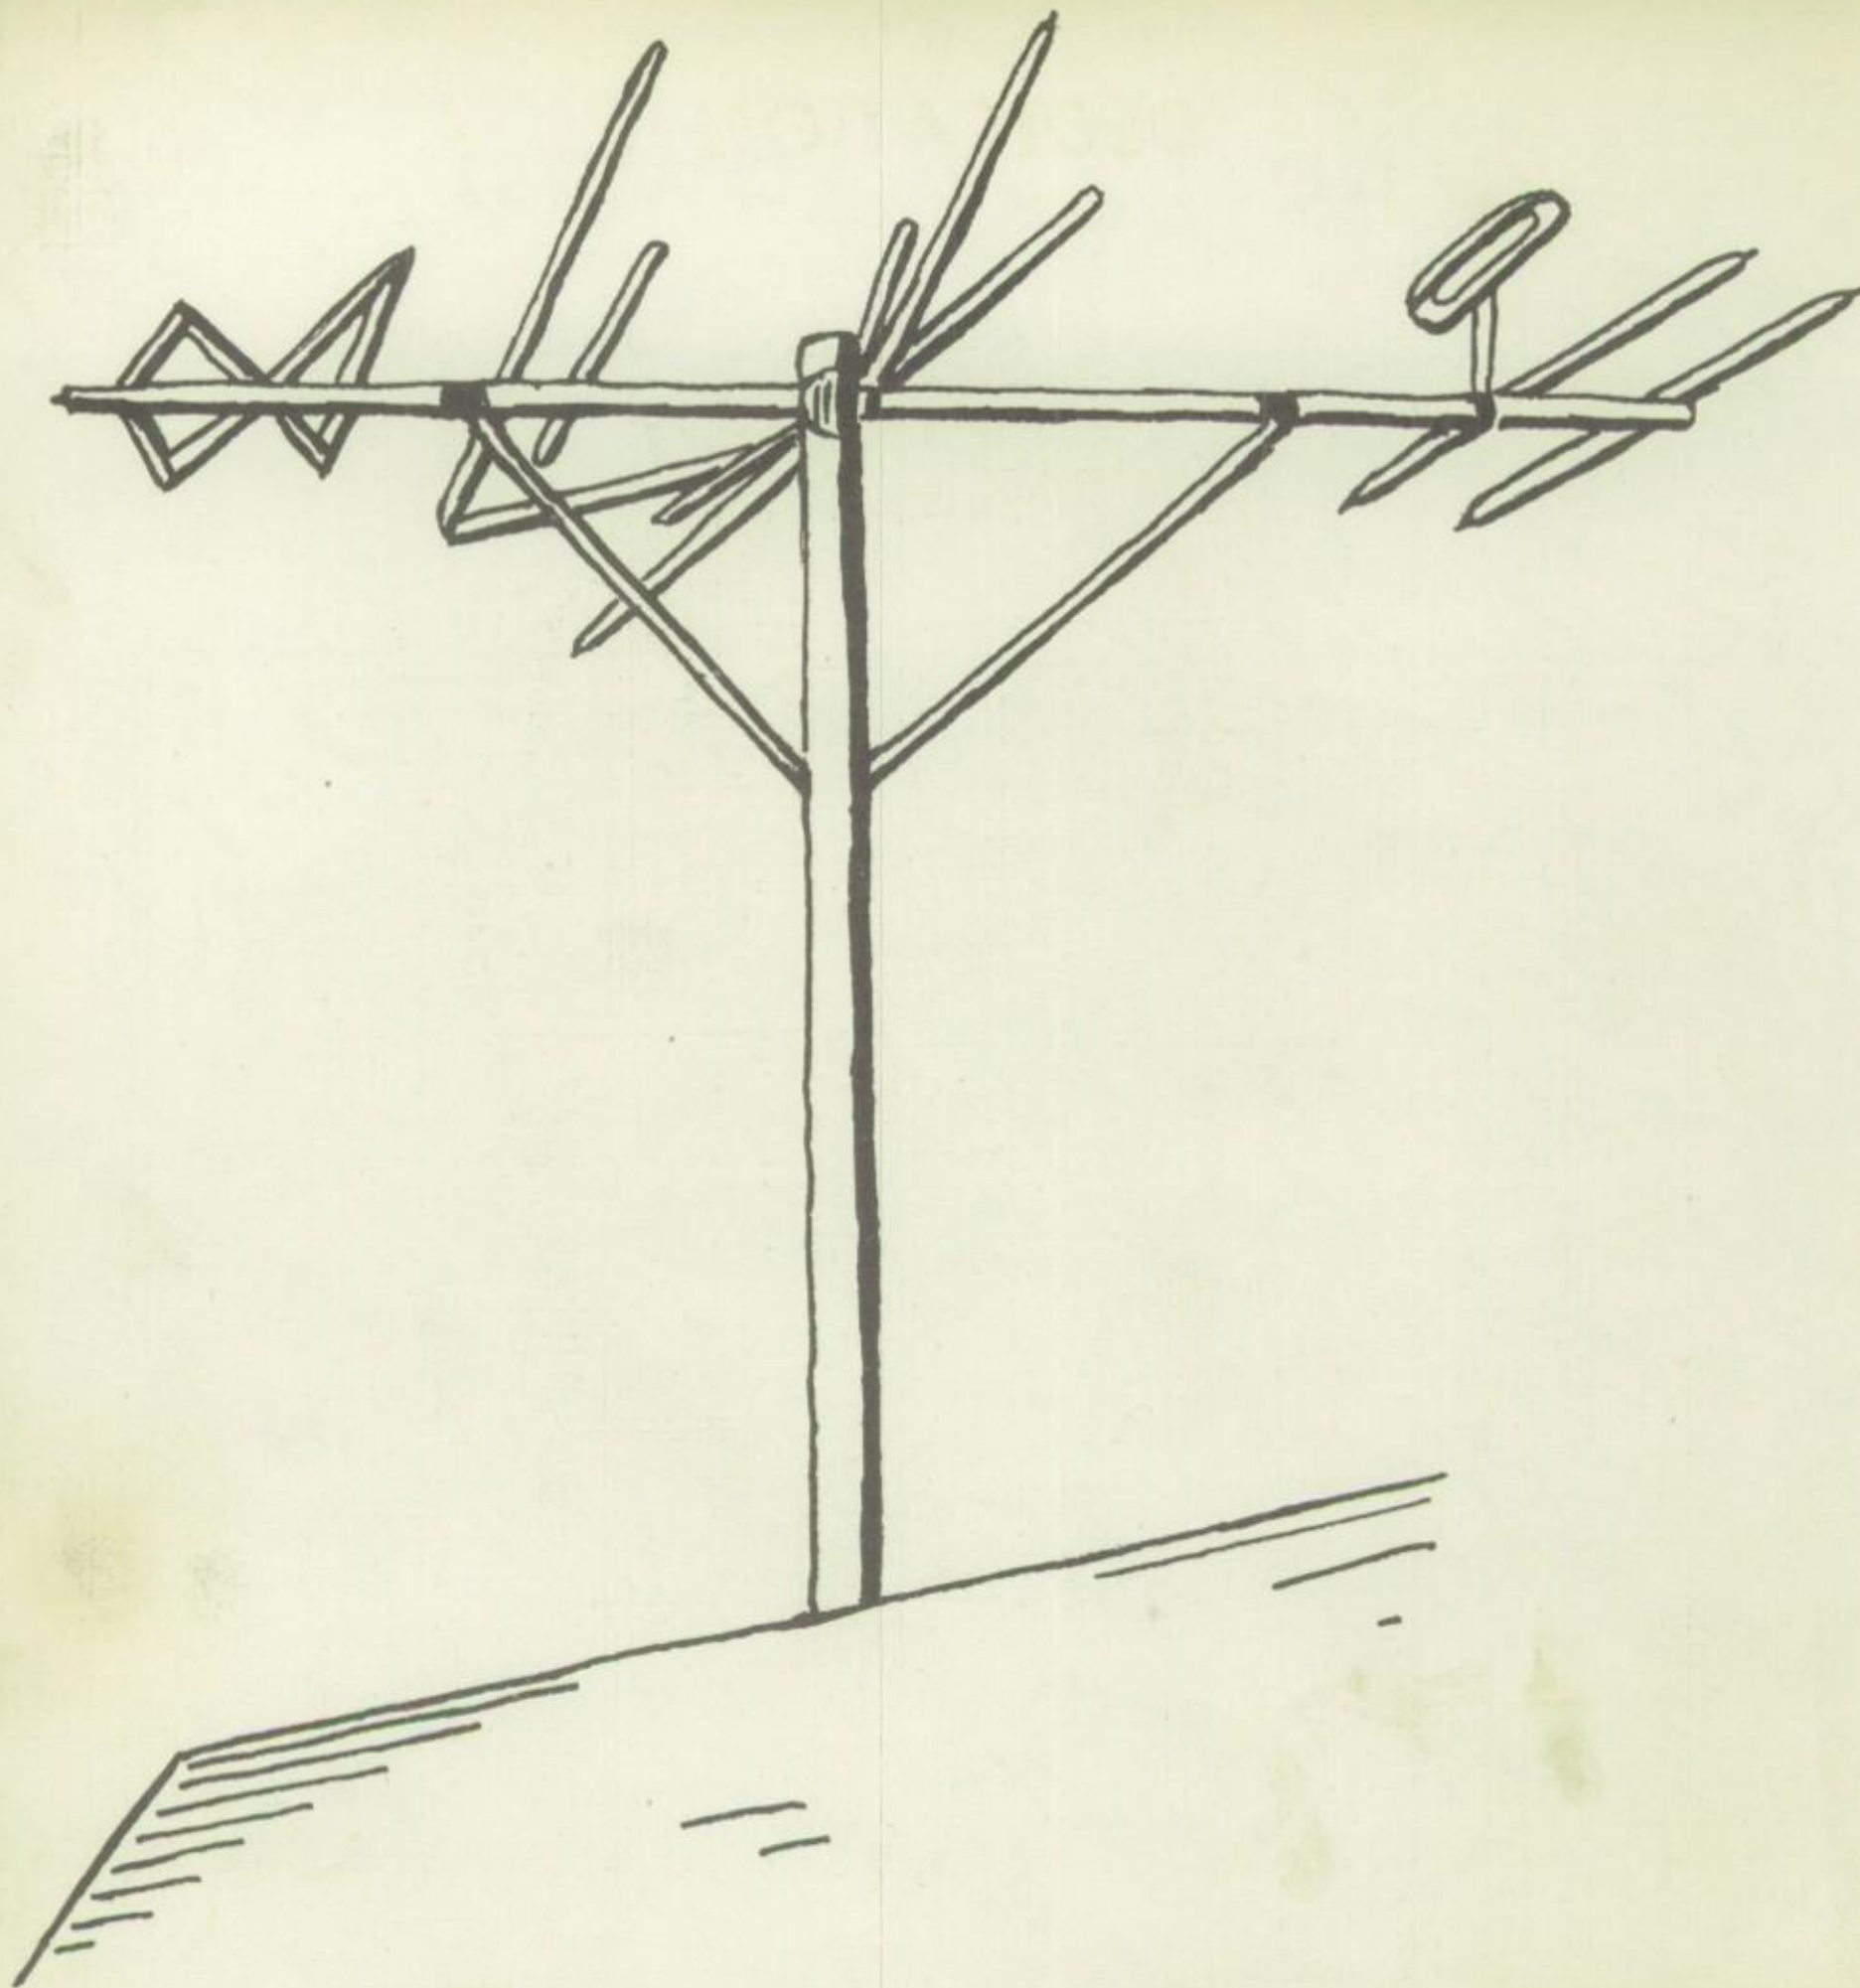

Our Last Performance

Channel 4

Station LGHS

Advisor, Miss Novella Duke

Editor, Barbara Johnson

For you the barriers of time and space have ceased to be. A new window has been opened - a magic window through which you can see and hear everywhere in this changing world.

As we work during these remaining days with the teachers who have guided us so patiently; the hours of study, the moments of happiness and the many priceless and memorable experiences shared with our classmates become a profound reality.

We, The TAWASI Staff of 1955, present for your approval our "Grand Finale" at station LGHS. We are even now preparing for our debut in this stirring drama of life. The director has just called, "On the set! Lights! Action! Cameras Rolling!!!"

DEDICATION

To the star director and producer of our show....

Who has unselfishly given of her time and ability to encourage and help us in our activities and our schoolwork, we express our heart-felt appreciation. As we shall travel forth her guidance will be an inspiration to us. We lovingly dedicate this, the ninth edition of the Tawasi, to the one who has been so loyal.....

SENIOR OFFICERS

The lights flash on, The cameras roll;
The time draws near, the scenes unfold,
Our last performance is now begun,
For this we hope much praise is won.

For four long years we've worked toward this day;
Worrying our directors 'till they're almost gray!
What fun we've had! What joy! What strife!!!
Something to remember the rest of our life.

In this production of La Grange on TV;
We've tried publishing our activities for you to see.
Many thanks to our helpers, our leaders, and friends,
And may you enjoy it from the beginning to end.

MEMORIES

“TELE-STORY”

When our program director, Mrs. Lillian Edwards, completed the casting for a melodrama, "Graduation", which was to be a four-year series, 86 scared, aspiring young actresses and actors began their TV careers at Station LGHS. With such a large number in the cast, it was necessary to elect officers. James Sutton, Glenn Helms, Helen Dawson, and Nora Kinsey prompted us during this first year.

We learned by trial and error the complicated schedule and studies of this new life. Besides rehearsals there was Glee Club and sports, on which the cameras were constantly focused. As the end of Act I came, we learned that Mrs. Edwards and Assistant Director Paul Causey, had signed contracts with other stations.

We numbered 64 when Miss Novella Duke assumed the position of director and Mrs. Herman Spence became our assistant director. Program assistants were Mike Uzzell, Charles Hardy, Bobby Mozingo, and Barbara Johnson.

Confidence grew and we no longer considered ourselves amateurs, but professionals. After all, weren't we upper classmen? Bursting with pride, we ordered a class ring to show that we were members of one company. Among the many activities, the most important were a record-breaking magazine sale, the Junior-Senior banquet, and the presentation of a successful class play, "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy?" Charles Hardy, Barbara Johnson, Nora Kinsey, and Pearl Tyndall were the engineers.

The final act begins and only 45 stars remain to receive the coveted title of Seniors. To give us our cues during this final act, we elected Charles Hardy, Helen Dawson, Joyce Varnell and Betsy Armstrong. Calling cards and invitations have been ordered. We look forward to presenting the Senior play and attending the Junior-Senior banquet. Work is progressing on the '55 edition of Tawasi, with Barbara Johnson capably acting as editor-in-chief. Just off the set are the bright lights of New York. And who can forget the thrill of the first Homecoming game? From this our team went on to become East Central Conference champions.

The final telecast from Station LGHS will be May 23, 1955, and it will be accompanied with all the pomp and splendor due such a memorable occasion. To those who have stood so faithfully beyond the range of the camera, our parents, teachers, and friends, we dedicate our encores for we are the stars of tomorrow.

CROSSROADS

Who would have ever dreamed that I would be the world famous TV news analyst? Yet here I am, constantly receiving fabulous newswatches of my old high school buddies.

President of the United States, Edward "Lou" Wilkins, and the first lady, former Mary Lee Elmore, gave a gargle party in honor of that great TV star Jake Subbs. Present also was the world famous tit-tat-toe champion, Stewart "Scacy" Wooten, who has just finished his autobiography, "Scacy's Feminine Adventures." Dr. Helen Dawson Creech, U. N. C. graduate, was on hand to present a golden studded toothpick to Murphy "Chuck" Naylor, latest marble champion.

Dr. James Sutton and wife (Nora Kinsey) the Metropolitan Opera Star, arrived from their Constantinople mansion in time for the ninth hydrogen explosion. It was set off by scientists Benjamin Solomon Eaton and Henry "Dogbone" Abbott, and held in the barren outcast of Bucklesbery. Gen. and Mrs. "Money" Newborn (Barbara Johnson) and their twins were vacationing in Europe, so they missed the big blast.

Mike Uzzell, the crooner, has just released his latest recording, "Mine Eyes Are Dim." He is now flying home from Paris, Africa to visit Mr. and Mrs. Mark Newton (Annette Rouse). Mayor and Mrs. Kay Thompson (Mamie Ruth Parks) just bought the Washington mint. . . Emily Jones, well known ballerina, has just returned from her jance tour in Alcatraz, where she saw the chief warden, Carney Worthington.

J. C. Mazingo, governor of North Carolina, gave the Brooklyn bridge to Jo Ann Anderson and Joseph Harrison for their wedding present. . . Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Terry Radford (Besty Armstrong) and their nineteen children are opening an orphanage at Willis ranch, Morehead Highway.

Jeanette Rouse, outstanding marriage counselor, entering her eighth marriage will have a small and simple ceremony. Her attendants are Frances Spivey, Helen Mazingo, Shelby Sutton, and Linda Riggs. Dorothy Owens, grand old opera star, will sing.

Hockeystick professionals Mary Beamon, Fay Holmes, Esther Pelletier, and Geraldine LeNeave are now playing in the new La Grange coliseum which still has three million tickets available, so contact Clyde Sutton, Joyce Varnell, and Annie Laura Sutton.

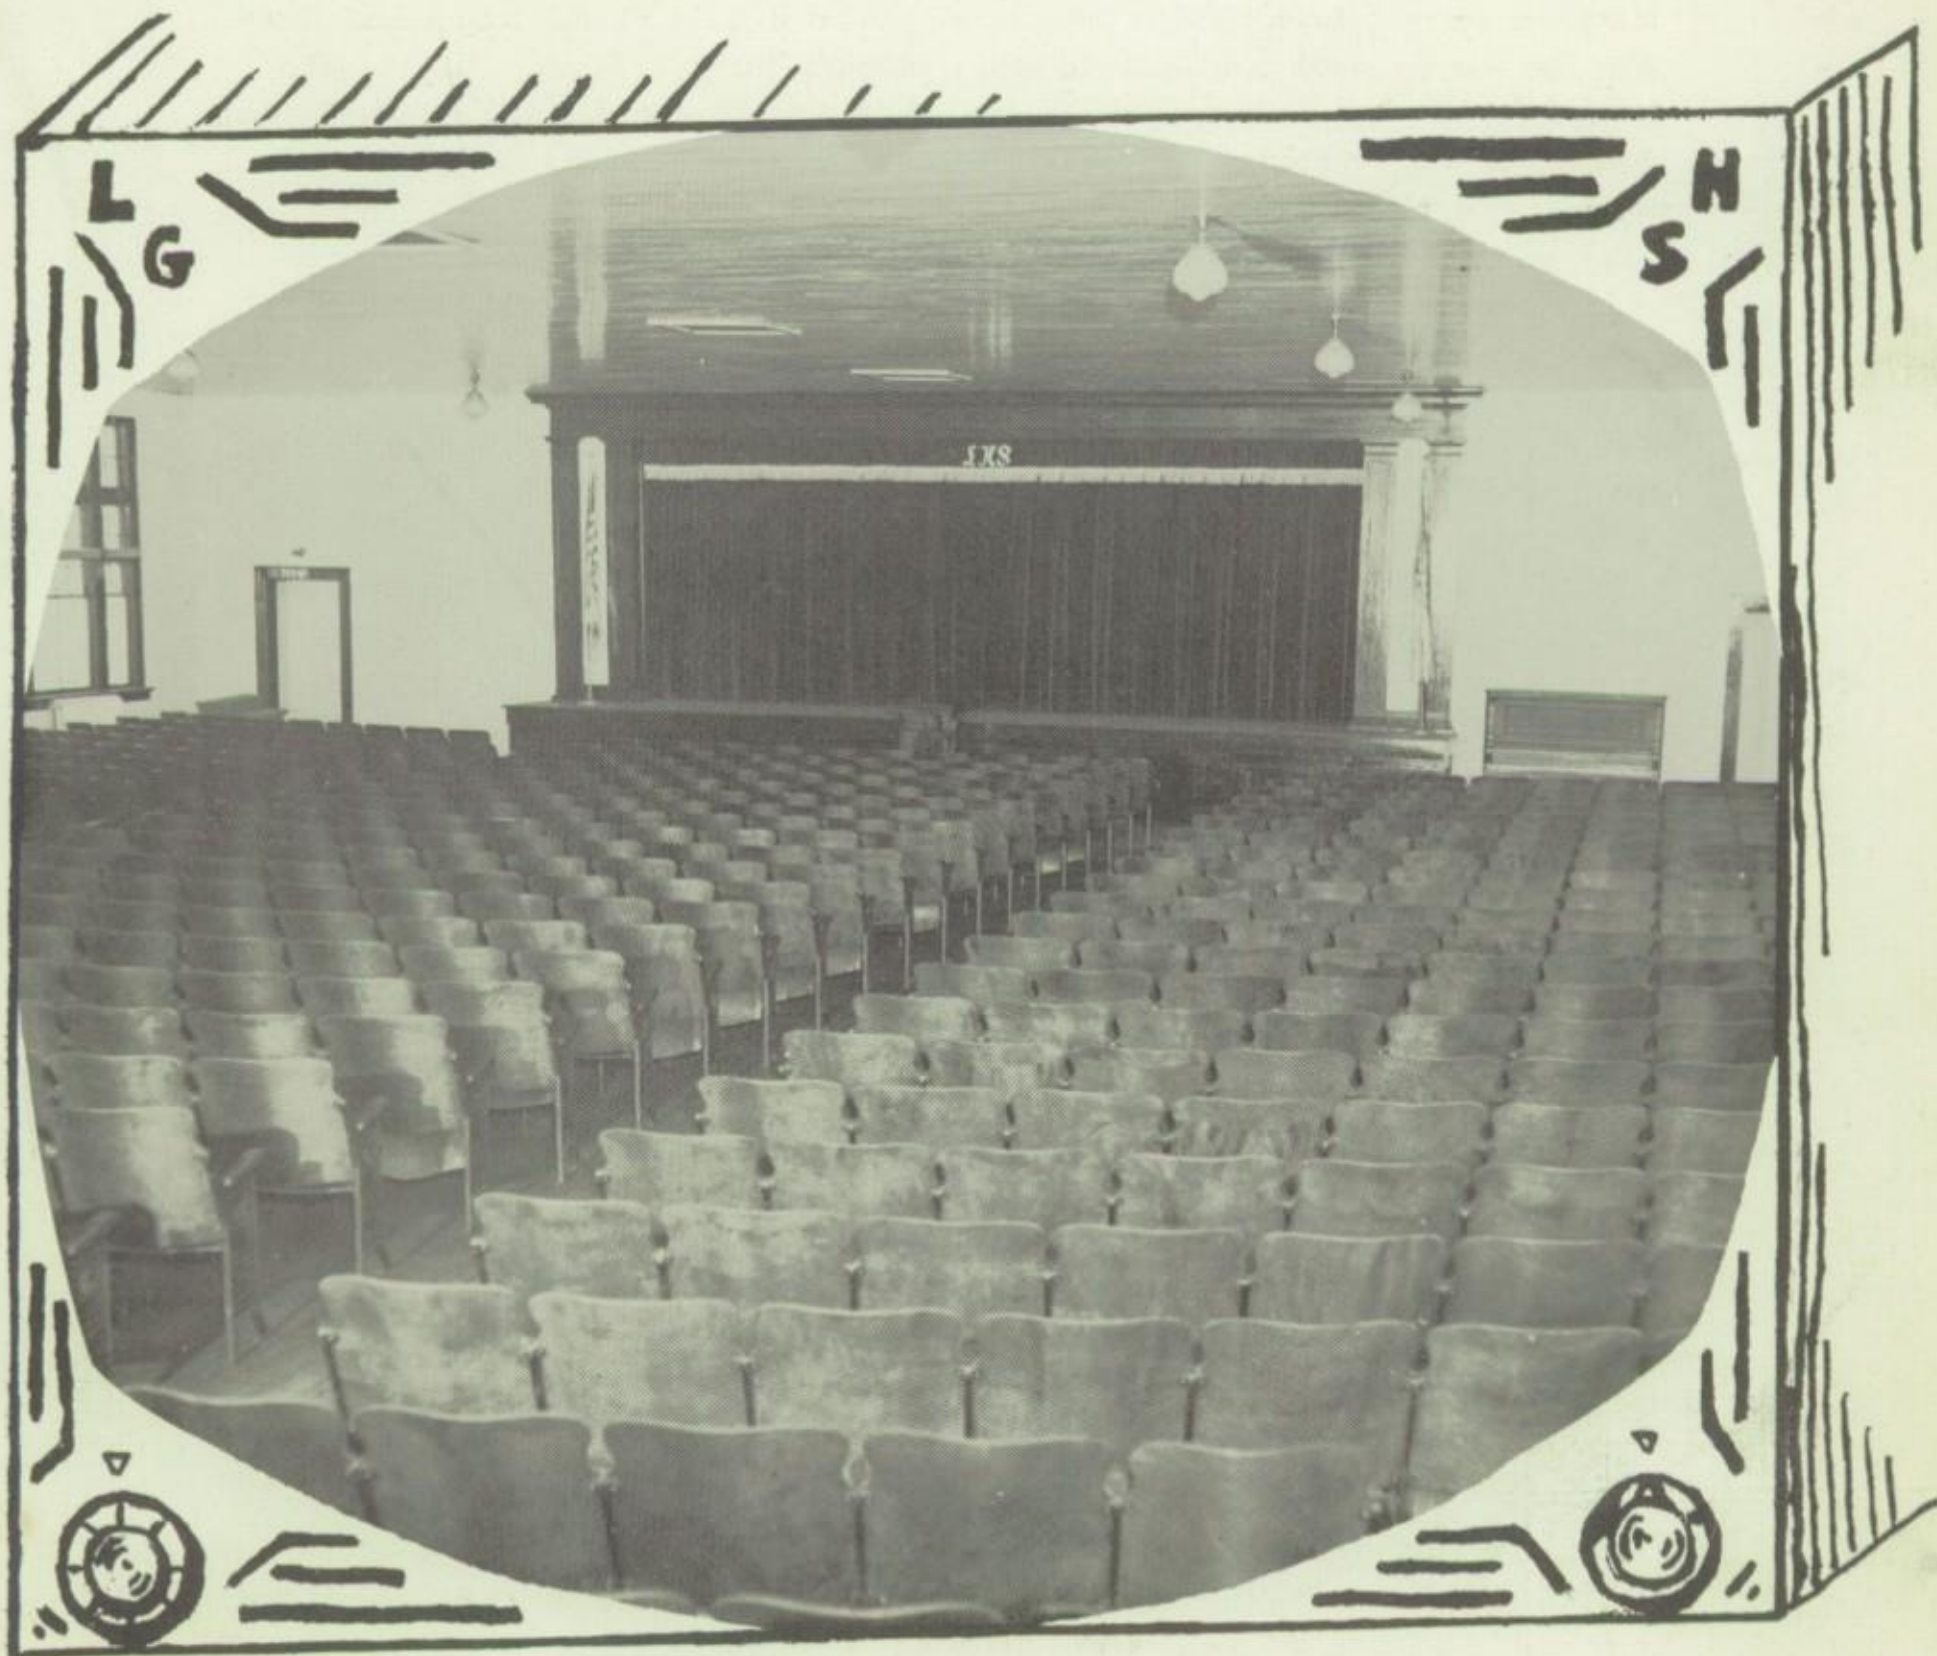

Charles Hardy and Jimmy Trivette are now coaches of the State College Midget Trotters, with James "Flash" Coile as their publicity agent. . . Baxter "Ham" Hardy, the local lover has just jilted his eleventh fiancée.

The most famous men of the "United Nations" have gone into big business. Jerry Suggs, Wallace Lang, Paul Lanier, and Joseph Kearney have organized the United Nut Crackers Association and are now manufacturing left handed nut crackers. Cecil Gibbs, chief executive of the Wilkins Tobacco Company, is on his way to Australia.

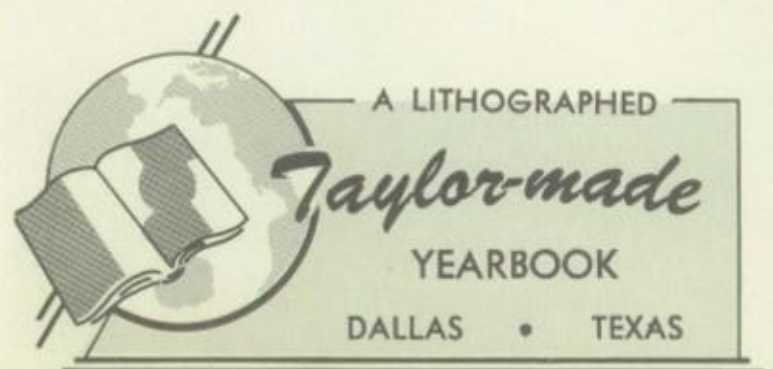

Having brought you the latest news, I am signing off for my twenty-five year vacation to Hotsprings, Alaska.

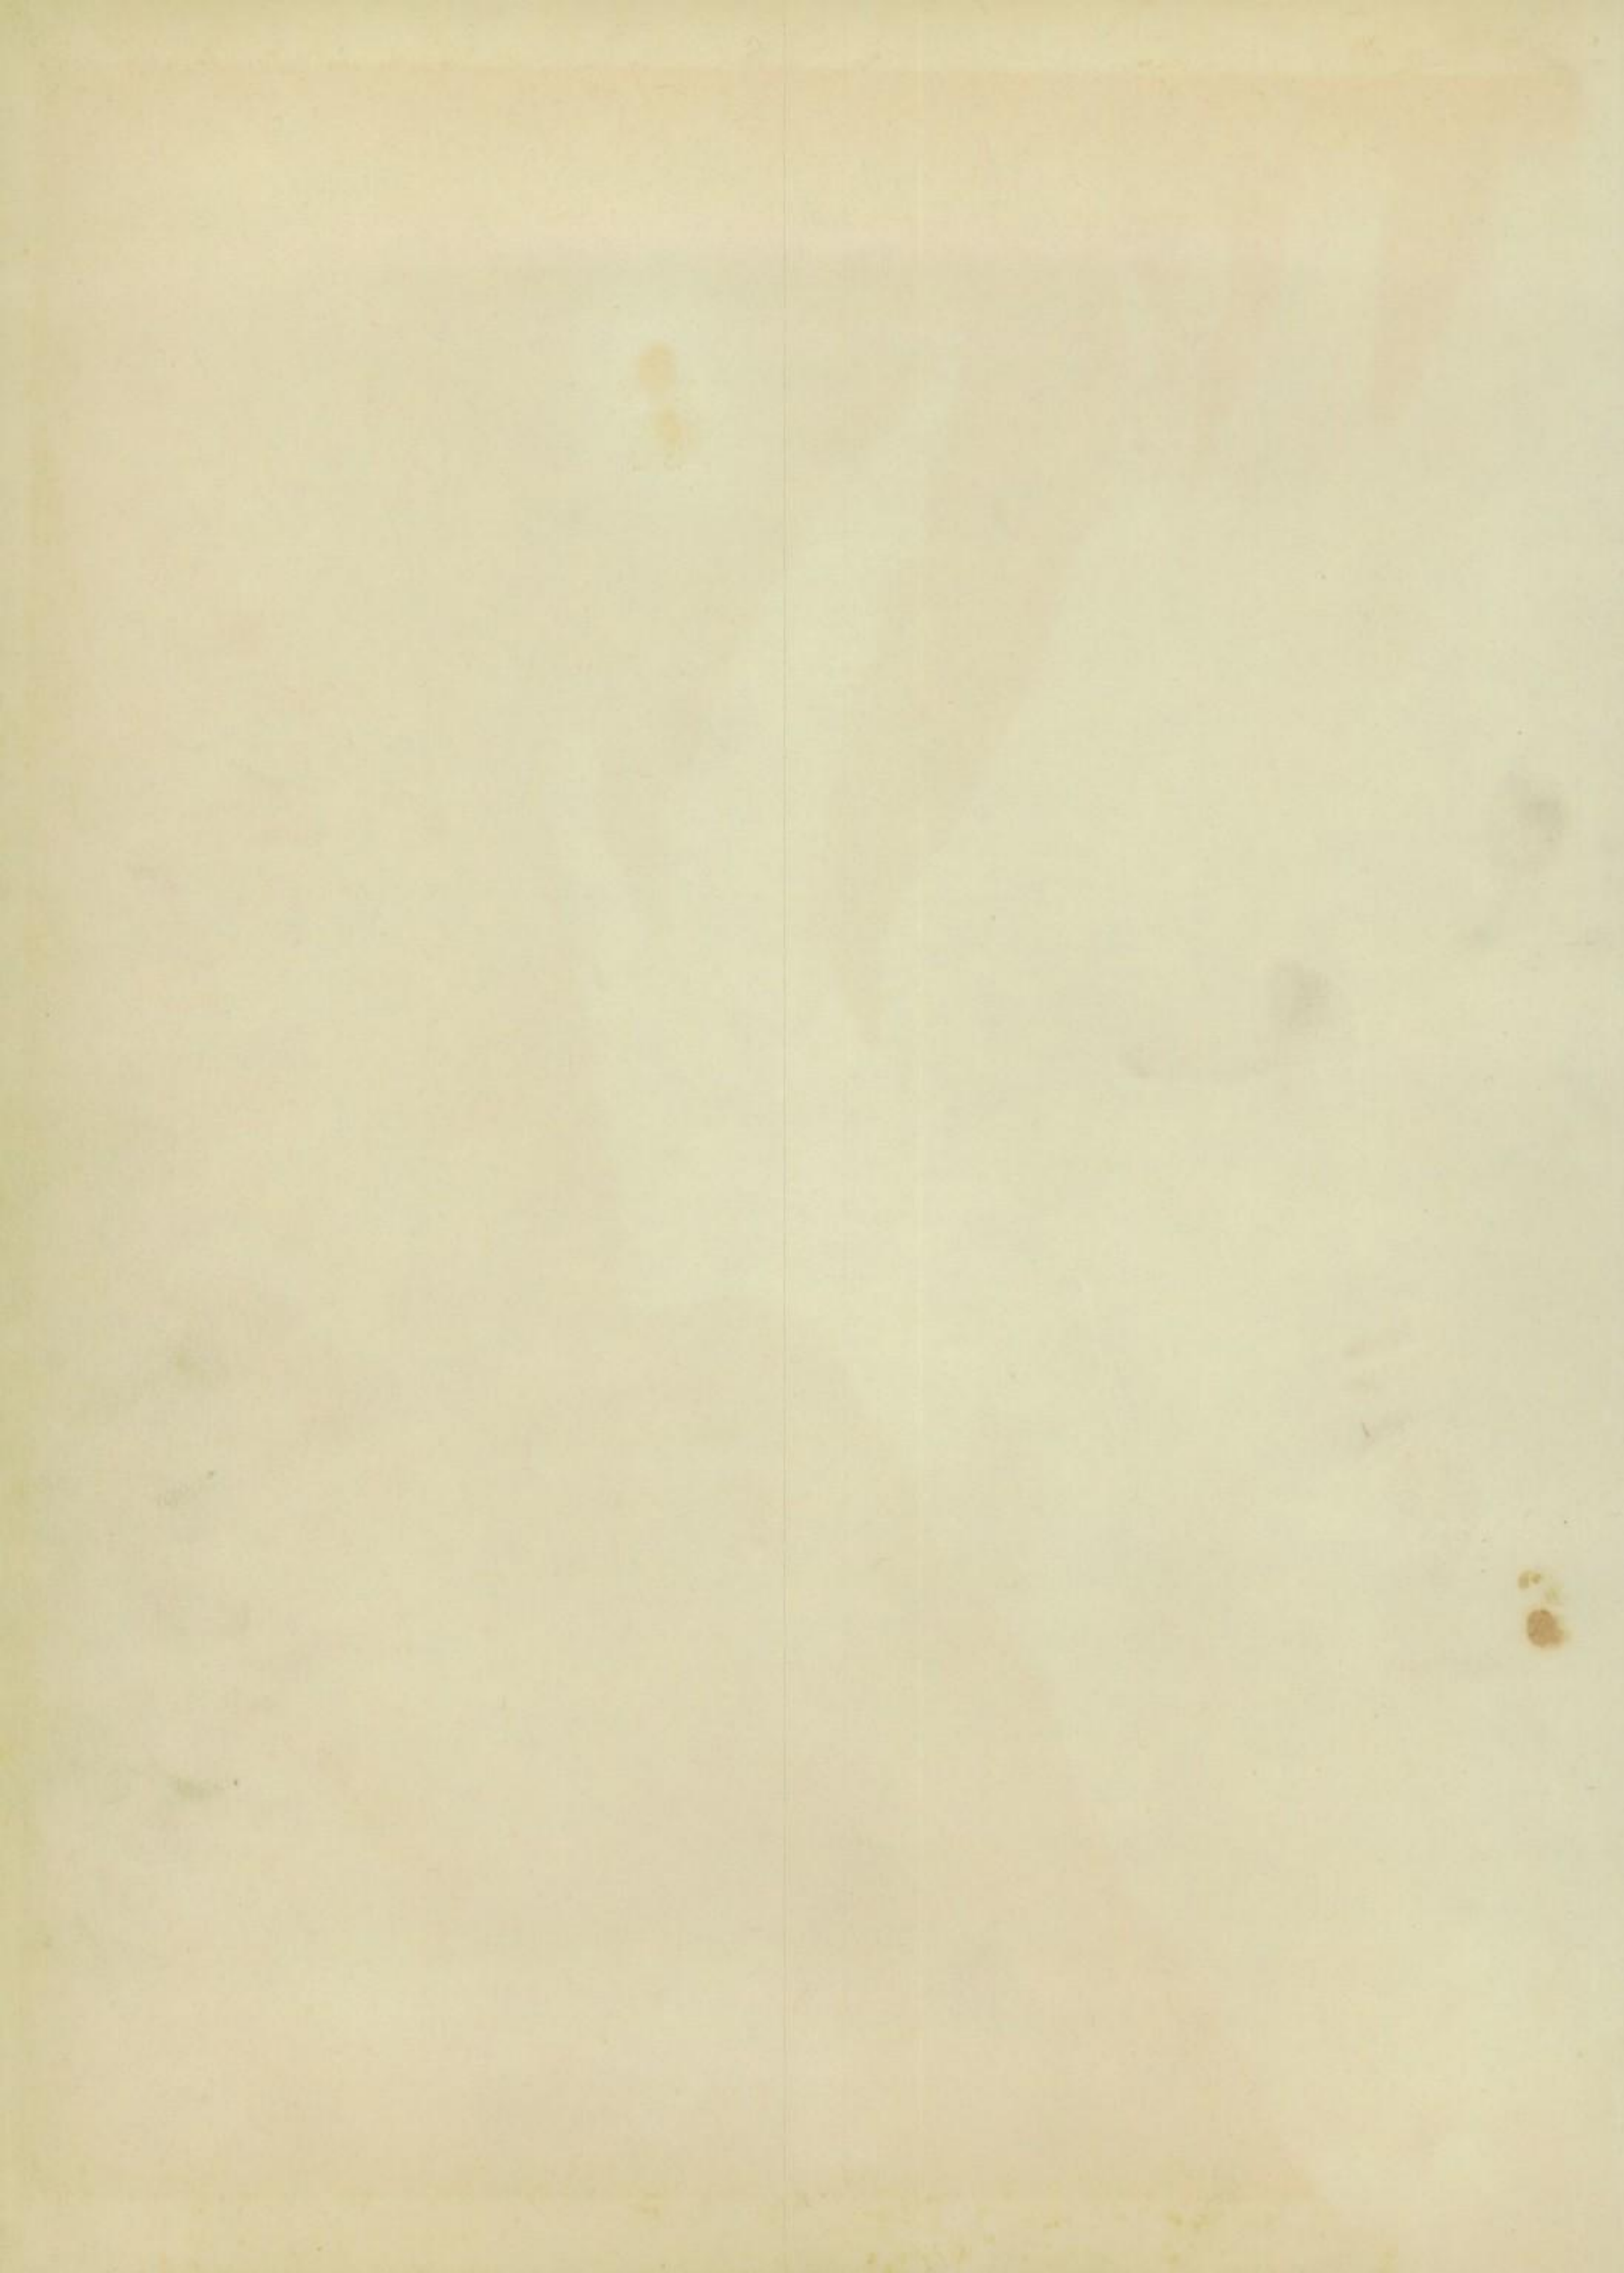

Billy "Wilvester" Hill
